

CANTOR 2017 CHARITY DAY

Transforming a seemingly insurmountable tragedy into a hopeful future

What a Difference a Day Makes

The attacks of September 11, 2001, forever changed the city of New York, the nation, and the world at large. For Cantor Fitzgerald, the impact was especially devastating with 658 of our friends and colleagues among the thousands who perished that morning. Every anniversary is a way for us to honor their memories through the Cantor Fitzgerald Relief Fund, and by helping others we turn that tragic day into one that is positive and uplifting.

While grieving the loss of his brother, Gary Lutnick, Cantor Fitzgerald CEO & Chairman, Howard W. Lutnick, marshalled the resources of the firm, and along with his wife Allison and sister Edie, set out to triumph over one of the worst events in modern history. Within hours of the attack they began addressing the critical needs of the Cantor families, from creating a makeshift command center, to arranging grief counselors, helping with funeral arrangements and expediting death certificates for insurance policies.

Facing the almost unimaginable, Howard and the other survivors vowed to persevere and rebuild the firm. While the logistics of reopening the New York operations were being strategized, work shifted to the firm's London offices. To provide for the victims' families remained a central mission and with a deep commitment to "taking care of our own", Cantor Fitzgerald made a promise of financial support to each family, pledging a percentage of the company's profits for five years, and 10 years of health-care coverage.

"I am going to take a day that was horrific and turn it around into something positive going forward."

Howard W. Lutnick, Chairman & CEO, Cantor Fitzgerald, L.P.

Establishing the Cantor Fitzgerald Relief Fund

On September 14, 2001, less than 72 hours after the Twin Towers were destroyed, Howard established the Cantor Fitzgerald Relief Fund with a $1 million personal donation. Edie Lutnick spearheaded the initiative, designated to help the 9/11 families. Since then, the fund has grown and expanded into the longest lasting and most effective charity initiated in response to 9/11. It has raised and distributed approximately $320 million to victims of terrorism, natural disasters and emergencies, direct service charities and wounded members of our military.

CANTOR FITZGERALD AND OUR AFFILIATES, BGC PARTNERS AND GFI GROUP, RAISED APPROXIMATELY $10 MILLION ON CHARITY DAY 2017 TO SUPPORT CHARITIES AROUND THE WORLD.

Charity Day was held on Monday, September 11, 2017. Since inception, it has raised approximately $147 million for hundreds of charitable causes globally.

Each year, Cantor Fitzgerald and our affiliates, BGC Partners and GFI Group, in conjunction with the Cantor Fitzgerald Relief Fund, commemorate our 658 Cantor and 61 Eurobrokers employees lost in the 9/11 World Trade Center attacks by donating all of the day's revenues to worthy causes around the world.

The Cantor Fitzgerald Relief Fund was founded in the wake of the September 11, 2001, terrorist attacks on the World Trade Center. Initially created to assist family members of Cantor Fitzgerald employees, the Cantor Fitzgerald Relief Fund has expanded its mission to provide aid to victims of terrorism, natural disasters, emergencies, direct service charities and wounded members of our military. Since its inception, the Cantor Fitzgerald Relief Fund has raised and distributed approximately $320 million.

Each anniversary is a poignant occasion for us. By supporting hundreds of charities around the world, we aim to turn a tragic anniversary into a positive and uplifting day. We would like to thank our clients, partners, and employees for their continued hard work and generosity for which we are exceptionally grateful. We would also like to extend our utmost appreciation to all of our celebrity guests who benevolently donated their time to make Charity Day such a remarkable success.

Sincerely,

Howard W. Lutnick

Launching a Remarkable Day

A year later, on September 11, 2002, Cantor Fitzgerald introduced Charity Day, an annual event designed to turn the memory of a tragic day into a remarkable one of generosity and care. Every year, Cantor Fitzgerald employees donate their day's commission—and the firm, joined by affiliates BGC Partners and GFI Group, donates 100% of the day's revenues to the Cantor Fitzgerald Relief Fund. Celebrities further drive the fundraising, making trades from the New York City and London offices. Charity Day alone has raised more than $147 million in the 16 years since its inception.

“We learned in the wake of 9/11,” explains Edie Lutnick, President of the Cantor Fitzgerald Relief Fund, “that families are the best positioned to take care of their own needs. And so our mission of delivering aid directly to those in despair goes on, with a clear memory of our own dark days, and a driving desire to bring light, comfort and financial assistance to all we can.”

Our thanks to all who help make Charity Day such a success each year. Together, we're doing a world of good.

TESTIMONIALS & ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

“Charity Day is so important because we lost 658 people on 9/11 and we have taken their loss and turned it into a legacy of doing good works in the world. Instead of having this be just a tragic day it has become an uplifting one.”

Edie Lutnick, President
Cantor Fitzgerald Relief Fund

“I am grateful for this company and I'm grateful for the culture of remembering 9/11 in a positive way. That's what New York City has done as a whole and I hope we'll do it for a long time to come.”

President Bill Clinton, Founder
The Clinton Foundation

“What they do every year on 9/11 to raise millions and millions of dollars for many charities, is awesome.”

Steve Buscemi, Actor
Friends of Firefighters

“It's always really wonderful to give back in such an easy way. To give money to charities that are so deserving and that will help so many people on a day that there has been a lot of pain in the past ... to heal that pain is a beautiful thing.”

Jake Gyllenhaal, Actor
Wiggle Your Toes

“It means everything to give back to people who are less fortunate. I think that's what we're here on this planet to do.”

Uzo Aduba, Actress, Orange Is The New Black
The Catalog for Giving

“It's the right thing to do. It's common sense.”

Robert De Niro, Actor
FDNY Foundation

“We can do whatever it is that needs to be done, it's just about getting off your butt and doing it!”

Darryl “DMC” McDaniels, Musician
The Felix Organization

“September 11th is a very difficult day for me and the people who were with the firm on that day in 2001. Before 9/11, we had about 960 employees. After we lost 658 people, we went down to only about 150 people in New York. And now, we have rebuilt. We are back to just under 4,000 in New York and 12,000 around the world.

So we’ve got all new employees out there and those employees waive their day’s pay and we try to get as many clients as we can to do business with us, and then we donate everything to about 100 different charities.”

Howard W. Lutnick, Chairman & CEO
Cantor Fitzgerald, L.P.

“What they do here is beyond words.”

Carol Alt, Model
Shelter Chic

“I love what they have done here, turning such a tragic event into a time to celebrate all these charities and give back. I’ll do it every year they ask me.”

Bridget Moynahan, Actress
The Hole in the Wall Gang Fund, Inc.

“We’re all here for a common goal and for a great cause; it really is exceptional that Charity Day exists.”

Luna Lauren Vélez, Actress – Dexter
Samaritan Daytop Foundation for Samaritan Daytop Village

“I never want it to get to the point that we don’t remember 9/11.”

Gayle King, TV Personality & Journalist
The Ana Grace Project

“I’m proud to be part of this Charity Day because it’s been an incredible journey and it has grown to a magnitude that no one could have possibly imagined. There are so many great things that are coming out of it, and will come out in the future, so it’s an honor to be a part of it.”
